

CANCE TOUBle!

DONKEY KONG, I PRESUME?

Not quite. Intrepid video game explorers Donkey and Diddy Kong appear to have been swallowed up by the trackless terrain of a whole new continent crawling with Kremlings. Now it's up to that daring damsel of adventure, Dixie Kong, to find the missing monkeys. But this is no solo expedition. Funky Kong has boundoggled Dixie into babysitting her cousin, the titanic toddler Kiddy Kong. At first glance, Kiddy may seem slower, clumsier and homelier than the missing link, but you'll soon appreciate the powerful play possibilities when he links up with Dixie. In the pages that follow, the pros at Nintendo Power blaze a trail through the Northern Kremisphere to provide you with complete maps, charting all the secrets of the great unknown, including how to deal with its many never-before-seen inhabitants, both friend and fiend. With this atlas of adventure, your safari will bring 'em back alive!

THE NORTHERN KREMISPHERE

There are eight areas to explore in the Northern Kremisphere. Not counting Bear cabins, Secret Caves or major baddie hang-outs, that means you have over forty levels to conquer before finishing the game. Rumor has it—and it might just be simian senility—that Cranky Kong covered all the levels and found everything in five hours and fifteen minutes!

Lake Orangatanga

Lake Orangatanga has a mixture of terrain that hints at the challenges you'll encounter in later stages in the game. Hone your simian skills as you bounce and roll through levels comprising water, snow, and dark and dreary dwellings.

2 Kremwood Forest

A river runs through the middle of Kremwood Forest. Brash Bear is the champion swimmer of these parts, but most folks agree that potential challengers stay away because of all the scary tales about a giant spider lurking in the treetops.

Cotton-Top Cove

With its bubbling trio of picturesque waterfalls, Cotton-Top Cove might be the best vacation destination in the Northern Kremisphere. Unfortunately, the Kremlings chased all the tourists away. Perhaps this explains why Blue Bear is so bummed out.

4 Mekanos

The toxic terrors lurking among the rusted ruins on the industrialized island of Mekanos are not for the faint of heart. This world contains some of the toughest challenges in the game, especially when you're searching for Bonus Coins.

K3

The frozen wastes of K3 never see any season except winter. It's tough for hairy toes to maintain a steady footing on the ice, especially when you have to jump over sliding Lemguins or dodge the polar projectiles hurled by a sinister snowman.

6 Razor Ridge

Serrated spires scrape the bloated bellies of the clouds high above Razor Ridge. This would be a scenic place to visit if there weren't so many creepy critters running around. One of the krueler Kremlings even disabled Björn Bear's Chairlifts!

Kaos Kore

Kaos Castle and all its secrets lie in the shadowy heart of the Kaos Kore. An entire army of Kremlings guard the country-side surrounding the foreboding fortress, Baffle Bear is working on deciphering a secret code—see if you can help him out.

8

Krematoa

Those who believe that the fabled Lost Land of Krematoa really existed think that the mysterious volcano sank below the seas long ago. If you're really interested in finding out more about this legend, be sure you badger Blunder Bear.

MONKEY BUSINESS

Although there are only a few new moves in Donkey Kong Country 3, the ones carried over from the previous games have been polished to perfection. It's also refreshing to note that Kiddy and Dixie have some real differences in their abilities. Dixie is arguably the better all-around character, but in the hands of an expert player, Kiddy's specialized abilities really shine.

TEAM MOVES

Body Slam

The titanic toddler, Kiddy, seems so heavy that Dixie can hardly lift him. However, if she tosses him up into the air (press Up as you throw after teaming up), he will come down with great force, breaking any weak parts in the floor.

Wild Ride

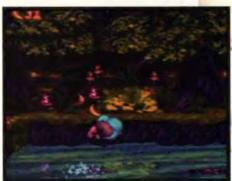

Dixie can ride Kiddy just like a barrel if you bounce him off the wall by pressing Up on the Control Pad as you throw him.
Unfortunately, this fun move is useful in only a few areas of the game.

Team Toss

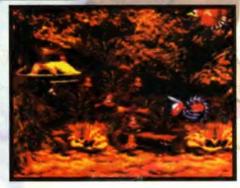

Kiddy can throw Dixie high into the air, higher than either of the Kongs can jump on their own. This team throw is extremely useful throughout the game for reaching anything that is out of jumping range.

SPECIALTY MOVES

Water Skip

Make Kiddy roll off the edge of a platform, then press the jump button just before he hits the water to make him do the Water Skip. If you can do this jump twice in a row, the second hop will be higher than the first. This specialized move is useful in a couple levels.

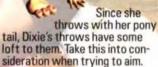

Helicopter Spin

Press and hold the Y
Button to make Dixie Helicopter Spin down from a jump or from a high platform. It's easy to come to a pinpoint landing using this slow descent method. You will use this move often, so master it!

Kiddy practically bowls the objects he throws, which makes his projectiles sail straight and low.

Dixie can jump a little farther and higher than Kiddy can. Of course, if she Helicopter Spins after a jump, she'll go really far!

Dixie's trim physique makes it slightly easier to swim safely with the fishes.

Kiddy's girth makes it a little more difficult for him to squeeze through tight spots underwater.

Dixie has a slight edge over Kiddy in the speed department, especially in accelerating from a stop.

are about equal.

Kiddy's size is again a liability on the ropes because he's a bit slower than Dixie when climbing. He's a bigger target for enemy projectiles, too.

Dixie is the queen of climbing. She really zips along on the many ropes you need to climb during your adventures.

Dixie's spin attack doesn't beat as many enemies and it seems a bit slower to start than Kiddy's roll. Still, it's a valuable skill in Dixie's bag of tricks.

LILE EVANTA RESTACK

Donkey and Diddy might be off exploring the island, but Dixie and Kiddy can always find a hairy helping hand or a word of encouragement from other members of the Kong Klan.

While these reliable relatives won't join you in your adventure, each family member possesses an important skill that can make your jungle journey just a little bit easier.

Wrinkly Kong

Wrinkly dumped her schoolmarm duds to take up the fitness craze. When she's not working out to aerobics videos, she's sharpening her reflexes on the Nintendo 64. Stop in for a visit and she'll save your game progress.

Wrinkly's abode is also where the freed Banana Birds migrate to roost. Check out the flock whenever you save your game.

FUNKY'S RENTALS

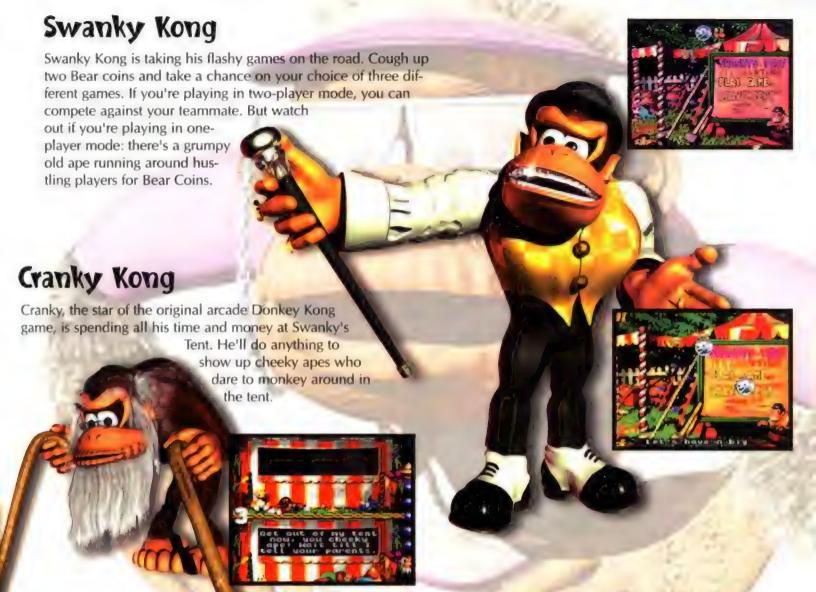

Funky Kong

Funky is in business with his own Rental Shop! He has a special rental rate for Kong family members: absolutely free! As you find items in the various worlds in the game, take them back to Funky and see if he can use his handyape skills to fix up the assortment of boats in the back assortment of boats in the back room. You'll need his specialized watercraft to reach the most remote regions of the Northern Kremisphere.

Head to Head

Knock down three more targets than your opponent and finish with a smile. As you start to take the lead, you'll see your ape's face begin to grin on the graph on the left side of the screen. This is the quickest bonus game to play.

Race to 25

You have one minute to knock down 25 targets faster than your opponent does. If you want to hit all 25 targets, you can't miss more than twice. Of all of Swanky's bonus games, the Race to 25 takes the most time to complete.

Endurance

How long can you throw without missing a target? If you're up against Cranky Kong, you'll have to last more than fifty seconds to defeat him. The best strategy here is to keep your character always near the center of the screen.

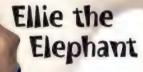

表别到1951月19至到

Your animal buds are hiding out in crates and barrels, just waiting for a chance to lend a trunk or a wing. Break open their hiding places to change into them temporarily or to have them join you. Either way, you'll have all of their special powers at your disposal. With friends like these, you won't have to worry as much about your enemies!

Ellie, a newcomer to the DKC lineup, has an amazing, multi-purpose proboscis. You can use her trunk to pull objects to you from far away, even across gaps. You'll also be able to carry barrels and drink and shoot water with it.

Parry the Parallel Bird 9

Parry is the second rookie on this year's squad, but his aerial antics make him an all-star in our book. Parry follows you overhead wherever you go, picking up otherwise unreachable items and defeating high-flying Booty Birds.

Squawks the Parrot

Two different colored Squawks use their aerial abilities to assist Kiddy and Dixie in their adventures. The garden variety green version bull's-eyes Kremlings with eggs at fifty paces. His purple cousin can heft and haul barrels in his talons and use them to dive-bomb enemy positions.

Squitter the Spider

With his quick-draw attack webs and keen eyes, Squitter would have felt right at home in the Old West. This web-slinger has an advantage over the

Enguarde the Swordfish

Enguarde the Swordfish bravely flits and floats through this, his third DKC adventure. His terrific swimming ability and needle-like bill will make short work of any watery hazards and Kremling hooligans that dare get in his way.

They've gone down in flames many times before, but this could be the big break for these arch-villains. Led by their nefarious new master, KAOS, the Kremlings are pick-ing themselves up and dusting off their dirty tricks for one more round of mayhem.

Kremling Kreeps

These crooked crocs would love nothing better than to double-team any Kongsters that swing into view. They are truly a force to be reckoned with!

Found primarily in arctic environs. Skidda loves to slip and slide his way around-right into your face! A simple bop on the head will be enough to put him on ice.

KLASP, KNOCKA, KUCHUKA

Klasp, Knocka and Kuchuka are from a clever breed of Kremling. They'll suddenly doff their TNT Barrel disguises and try to knock you around or lob bombs at you. Sometimes they'll even rig themselves to explode on contact.

KOBEILE

He's hardy, heartless and bent on mopping up the forest floor with you. Kobble is the unappreciated foot soldier in the Kremling forces, but you shouldn't underestimate him.

This is one airborne annoyance that can actually come in handy from time to time. You can use Kopter's helmeted head as a launch pad to reach even greater heights of achievement.

KRIMP

He keeps a low profile, but he'll be sure to make himself known to any unwary apes. Krimp's shark-like teeth make him impervious to rolling attacks,

KRUMPLE

Krumple doesn't want to pump you up, he wants to take you out! This buff baddie can withstand everything short of an exploding TNT Barrel or a stomp on the head from Kiddy.

Koin deflects frontal assaults with his trusty shield so you'll have to find a way to attack him from behind with a Steel Barrel. Your reward will be a DK Coin.

BAZUKA

Bazuka's barrel blaster is equipped with a laser sight—all the better to shoot you with! A long range counterattack with a TNT Barrel is your best bet for shutting him down

Terrorfirma Tuff Guys

BRISTLES

The aptly-named Bristles will turn aside any attacks from above or the rear, but a headon smack on his tender snout will make him turn tail and run.

This dirty rat has been a threat to the Kongs from game one. Ellie will run away if she sees him, so you'll have to use barrels to clear the path in front of her.

Nid may look menacing, but he'll actually give you a boost to a higher level or helo you over an obstacle. Just make sure that you won't be leaping straight into danger!

MINKEY

Knik-Knak is another baddie that will stick to his post. You can bounce off him to get to higher ground, but if you miss, he may not reappear unless you lose a life and return.

If Minkey is any relation to the Kong clan, he's surely the bad one of the bunch. Minkey and his pals love to lob acorns at passersby. Watch for patterns or duck behind shields.

Flying Fiends

BUZZ

Sporting a razorsharp saw

of his stinger
Buzz is no
ordinary bee.
The green Buzz
can be defeated with barrels, but the red Buzz is virtually indestructible.

BOOTY BIRD

Booty Bird is a treasure hound, and you can sometimes uncover his hoard by defeating him. Some of the useful items and bonuses you may find include bananas, letters and barrels.

KARBINE

Owls are born predators, but Karbine has decided to go nature one better. He's loaded for bear and ready to take on all challengers with his rapid-fire best friend.

KOCO

Koco isn't aggressive at all, but he tends to park himself in inconvenient places. You won't be laughing once you run the gauntlets he and his finny friends have laid out.

BOUNTY BASS

soon as you're in dive-bombing range.

Here's another not-so-baddie that will give you a boost from time to time. Like Booty
Bird, Bounty Bass

and power-ups on hand, all ready for you to reel in.

SWOOPY

Swoopy doesn't look particularly dangerous, but he'll prove to be one of your most pernicious and persistent foes. He'll attack as

BAZZA

Bazza is nearly unbeatable on his home surf—er, turf. He likes to block your way, so it takes time to get ahead when you're swimming in his waters.

GLEAMIN' BREAM

Dixie and Kiddy have taken up night diving as a hobby, and Gleamin' Bream will be there to help out. Just tap him to temporarily illuminate your underwater

Nibbla has a voracious appetite, and he'll gobble up other underwater baddies for you. Be careful of his temper, though; if he goes hungry or eats a Lurchin, he'll turn nasty!

LURCHIN

Lurchin's hard, spiny shell is something that even Enguarde's blade can't pierce. Wait until Lurchin exposes his soft insides before you try to take a swipe at him.

ROLLOUT THE BARRELS

You'll have a barrel of fun with all the wild and wacky barrels in DKC 3. There are barrels that contain items, transport you, transform you and explode. You'll have to pick up and throw some of the barrels to break them; others will break or activate when you jump into them.

Goodie Barrels

Barrels with pictures of your animal friends on them will transform you into the pictured animal when you jump into them. When you break open goodie crates, you'll ride your animal friend.

DK Barrels

If you're all alone, break these barrels to make your buddy pop out and join you! You can then use the Select Button to switch between Kiddy and Dixie.

Bonus Barrels

Jump into Bonus Barrels to be transported to Bonus Areas. There are four types of Bonus Areas: Bash the Baddies, Collect the Bananas, Collect the Stars and Find the Coin. Most levels have two Bonus Barrels, except 8-1, 8-3 and 8-4 (which have 3) and 8-5 (which has none).

TNT Barrels

TNT Barrels explode when you toss them against the wall. The explosion can either open a hidden part of the level or allow you to escape from a tight spot. Watch out for enemies that shoot these at you.

Star Barrels

Star Barrels mark the halfway points of levels. If you break these barrels, you will be able to restart the level where they were instead of at the normal starting point if you lose a life.

Barrels & Crates

Any of these objects make great ammunition to hurl at enemies. Wooden Barrels will break on contact, but Steel Barrels will roll through enemies and bounce off walls.

Invincibility Barrels

Break open Invincibility
Barrels and you'll be impervious to damage for a short time. These barrels are few and far between, so barrels are few and far between, so you can bet that if you find one, it is there for a reason...

Switch Barrels

Jump through these barrels to change the type of barrel that the nearest enemy is shooting at you. Sometimes you want them to shoot normal barrels, other times TNT Barrels or Steel Barrels will suit your needs better.

Warp Barrels

Warp Barrels are conveniently placed in most of the levels in the first two worlds. They will allow you to quickly bypass these simpler levels to reach the challenges ahead.

Barrel Shields

Look for Barrel Shields in the Barrel Shield Bust-up level. These will protect you from coconutthrowing Minkeys as you climb ropes.

Barrel Cannons

A wide variety of barrels will blast you through the air if you jump into them. Some are stationary and some move. Expert Barrel Cannon marksmanship is essential to success in DKC 3.

BAZALAR OF THE BIZARRE

As you clamber over the cliffs and crawl through the crannies of DKC 3, you'll collect the loot! The items shown below are called out on the maps that follow.

Banana Bunches

Banana Bunches give you ten bananas each. Collect 100 bananas and you'll earn an extra life. Some Banana Bunches are invisible, so look everywhere to find them all! Trails of bananas will also guide you in the right direction through a level.

Bear Coins

Silver Bear Coins are accepted as legal tender by Bazaar Bear and by Swanky Kong in his Bonus Bonanza. You can turn up the odd Bear Coin in most secluded corners of the levels or win them if you do well in Swanky's games.

Extra Life Balloons

Extra Life Balloons come in three great flavors. Red Balloons give you one extra life, Green Balloons give you two and the elusive Blue Balloons give you three extra lives!

Every level has one Koin, a Kremling guardian of the DK Čoin. You must penetrate Koin's defensive shield to get the DK Coin. Get them all to prove you are a true video game hero.

Bonus Coins

You'll earn Bonus Coins for finishing the different Bonus Areas. You will need a big batch of Bonus Coins to bribe Boomer Bear to blow up boulders in the Lost World.

Banana Birds

The elusive Banana Birds have been imprisoned in crystalline caves throughout the overworld of Donkey Kong Country. There are 15 Banana Birds in all, and you will need to release them all.

FUNKY'S RENTALS

Motorboat

Funky's basic model Motorboat is the watercraft you'll use to start your expedition. It will get you to the nearest island, where you will find Lake Orangatanga and the Kremwood Forest.

Hovercraft

Once you get the patch from Arich, the lord of Kremwood Forest, Funky will be able to return the Hovercraft to seaworthy shape. The Hovercraft will allow you to access other islands since it can skim over the stone barriers.

Funky Kong provides the vehicles that will allow you to explore The Northern Kremisphere. As Kong family members, Dixie and Kiddy get to rent Funky's wild watercraft free of charge. You will need to find parts so Funky can get his rental fleet up and running, though.

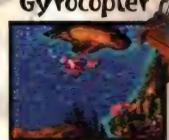

Turbo-Ski

Funky will build the Turbo Ski once you have obtained the skis from Squirt and Kaos, the bosses of Cotton-Top Cove and Mekanos. Press the Y Button for a turbo boost that will enable the Turbo Ski to jump up waterfalls.

Gyrocopter p

Funky will complete his "ultimate ride" only if you have collected all of the DK Coins. Fly high in the Gyrocopter to find the last of the elusive Banana Birds. Tracking down all the Banana Birds is your ticket to the ultimate goal of 103% completion!

HOW DOES YOUR FLAG WAVE?

You can learn a lot from the way the flags flutter on the map screen. If you look closely, you can tell how many Bonus or DK Coins you've found in a world and which levels are still hiding secrets. To learn to read the flags, check out the examples below.

A black Kremling flag means a level hasn't been conquered. A pink flag means Dixie finished the level first, while a blue flag indicates that Kiddy completed the level the first time.

A yellow pennant flaps next to your pink or blue flag when you defeat Koin and win the DK Coin. But there's a difference between a furled and an unfurled flag, as you'll learn below.

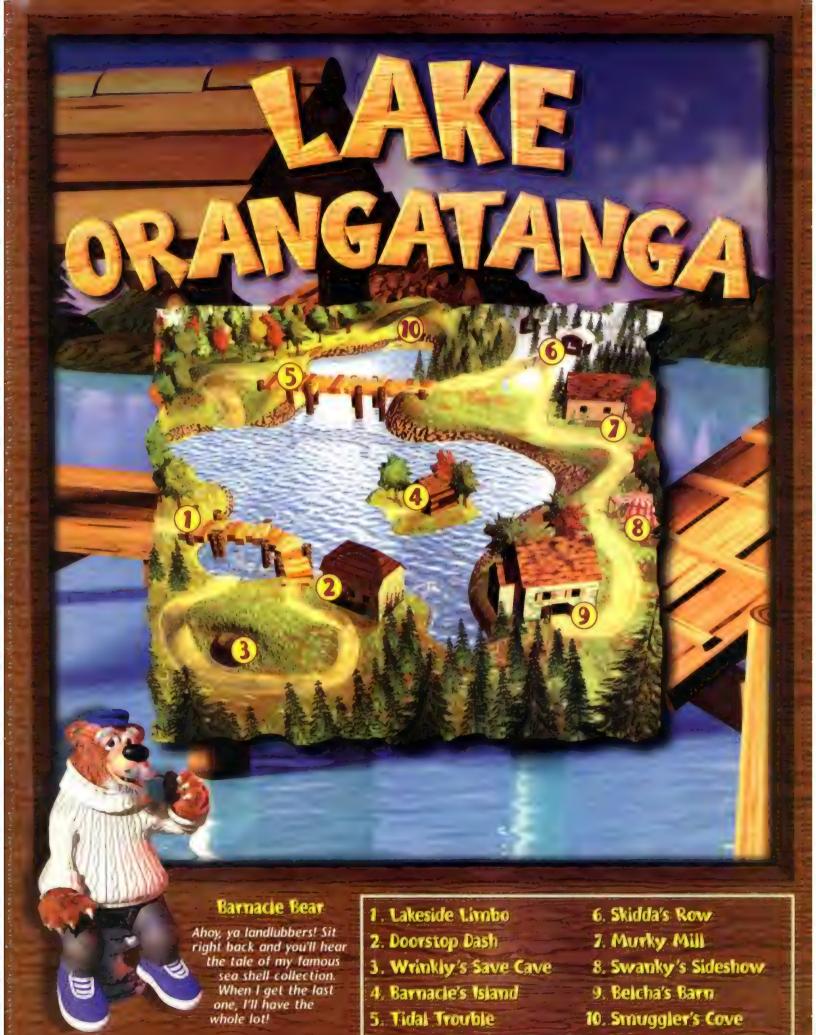

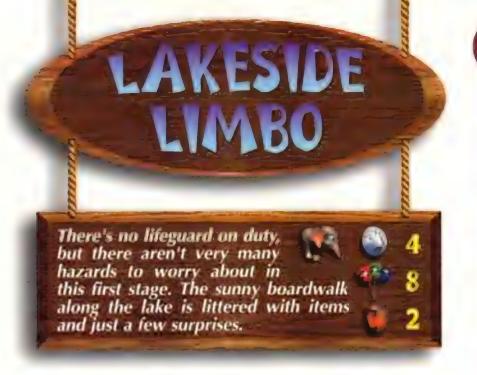

An unfurled flag flapping in the breeze means that you've found all the Bonus Coins in the level. The flag will barely stir if the level still has secrets and treasures to discover.

There's a secret in the stage names, too, Go to a level and check the stage name. If an exclamation point (!) appears behind the title, you've found all the Bonus Coins.

Teamwork Is the Key

The fun begins right away with two hidden Red Balloons near the start. Use the team throw to get up on the roof. Press A to pick up your partner and press Y to throw. Use the Control Pad to direct your buddy up and to the side. Being the burly boy that he is, Kiddy can throw higher than Dixie can.

Use the rope and Dixie's Heliconter Spin to collect all 50 stera before the timer runs out. When all the sters have been collected, the Bonus Coin will appear in the second Borus Area, a green banana will appear at random every few seconds. Collect 15 bananas before the timer runs out to make the Borus.

Coin appear.

Warp One, Mister Kong!

Many of the early stages have secret, invisible Warp Barrels that will teleport you to the end of the stages. Stand on the left edge of the upper platform and use Kiddy to throw Dixie (Dixie can't throw Kiddy far enough) up and to the left. Kiddy will automatically follow Dixie into the warp. Engage!

He Ain't Heavy, He's My Kiddy

Stand to the side of the cracked planks and team throw Kiddy up and right or up and left. He'll land with an earth-shaking crash and break open the weak spot in the walkway. Hop into the Bonus Barrel to reach the first Bonus Area.

KRUSH KOIN!

Koin is the designated guardian of the DK Coins. With a milk pail for a helmet and a trash can lid for a shield, he'll track your movements and deflect all frontal and aerial attacks. The trick is to catch him from behind. Grab the Steel Barrel and throw it up and over his head. He'll keep his attention on you and ignore the barrel. The barrel will bounce off the platform behind him and knock him into the drink. Your prize will be the first DK Coin of the game!

You can't break through the boardwalk here. Go back to the left and dive into the water. Go right to find the second Bonus Barrel.

Booty Bird is hiding the letter G. Jump on him from the upper platform or use the barrel to knock him out of the sky.

Go Ballistic

There's a Blue Balloon worth three extra lives just up and to the left of the No Ellie sign. Once again, Kiddy's greater throwing power is the key to collecting the prize. Press Up and then Left as you throw to reach the maximum distance. The balloon is on the very edge of Kiddy's throwing range, so it may take a couple of tries to get it

DOORSTOP DASH

Seeing how easily you got past Lakeside Limbo, the Kremlings will up the ante in Doorstop Dash. Getting through this creaky, old shed will take more timing and coordination.

lump up and grab on to the handle to open a metal door. Once you let go of the handle, the door will start to close slowly, and you'll have only a few seconds to make it to the other side. Press and hold Y while moving to run quickly. Make sure that you've thoroughly explored the area you're in and collected everything there before you move on. Once a door closes behind you, there's usually no way to get back to the other side!

hi the high Dancis Area, pull on the handles to get from one side to the other and collect 60 stars. The Bonus Coin will appear on the right.

In the second Bonus Area, you just need to go to the right to find the Bonus Coin. Grab the first handle and watch Buzz's pattern before you jump

PINBALL WHIZ

This one is like an old pinball bank shot. Pull the handle to open the door above Koin's head, then grab the Steel Barrel and make a jumping throw to heave it through. Dixie is the better choice for this job.

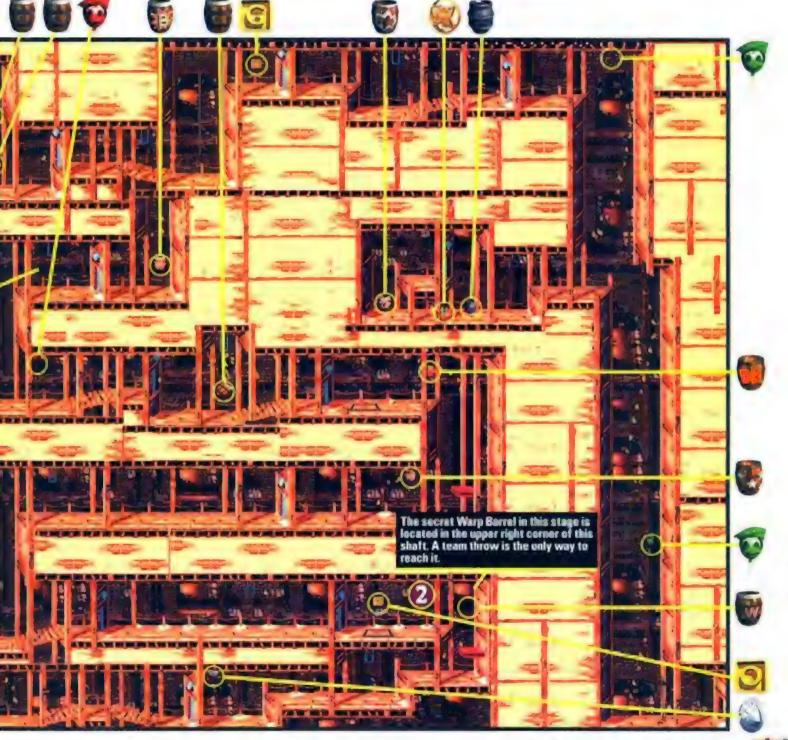

Down the Hatch

These trap doors are strategically placed in front of metal doors. They'll hold vour weight if you run across them, but they'll drop them. The tall won't hurt you, but it will delay you long enough for the door to close.

TIDAL TROUBLE

Get out your water wings and get set to plunge into more trouble. You'll have to work against the tide in this stage, but Kiddy's Water Skip will help in some tough spots.

Skip to My Lou

With Kiddy in the lead, stand on the cross beam connecting the poles. Throw Dixie up and to the left. If your aim is true, Kiddy will follow her automatically into the Warp Barrel. You can also stand on the edge of the platform to the right and perform Kiddy's Water Skip to reach the barrel.

Bounce off of the Knik-Knaks to get onto the platform. These Knik-Knaks won't regenerate unless you lose a life and return. Watch out for Knockal Collect 30 stars to reveal the Bonus Coin. To defeat Lurchin, you must have changed into Enguarde before coming here Take a stab at him when his shell is fully open.

In the second Bonus Area, defeat all the Knik-Knaks by bouncing from one to the other If you hit one from the side or below, you'll be booted back out to the main stage

HEAVE HO

This DK Coin will be a piece of cake. Toss Dixie up onto the roof above the start point to retrieve a Steel Barrel. Make a bank shot off the platform to hit Koin from behind. Jump up as you throw to get the correct angle for the barrel to bounce back. If you throw too high, the barrel will roll away to the right.

Don't Get Your Feet Wet

After you collect the letter N, Water Skip or Helicopter Spin to the next platform and the second Bonus Barrel. The target platform is at the extreme range of both maneuvers. You can't jump up on either platform straight from the water, and the Knik-Knaks you use to get up on the first platform won't regenerate unless you're defeated. Be sure to hit the Star Barrel beforehand. If you miss the second platform, let yourself be defeated and start over from the halfway point.

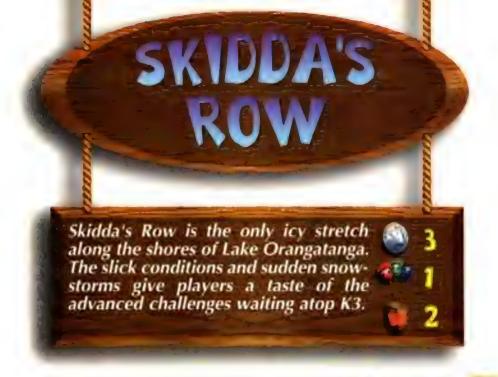

1-up Under the Bridge

Always be on the lookout for clues to secret areas and hidden bonuses. Use the team throw to break open the cracked planks just before the flag. Hop into the gap to find a Red Balloon and a Booster Barrel that will launch you back up onto the boardwalk. Remember that Kiddy is the only one heavy enough to break through floors and walls

Aim for the Warp Barrel!

Take a shortcut to the end of Skidda's Row in a hidden Warp Barrel! It takes teamwork to reach the barrel. Have Kiddy stand on the left eave of the first cabin in the stage, face left and throw Dixie up into the air. If he's standing on the edge of the roof and throwing high enough, Dixie will land in the barrel.

Up on the rooftop Skidda paws. Bounce off the Kremling when he turns his back on you. Move fast or you'll end up making snow angels on the ground below

Crevasse Crossing!

If you're slow hitting the jump button, you'll end up sliding down into a bottomless crevasse. As Dixie or Kiddy starts to slide down the hill, keep a finger poised over the jump button. If you jump just before the ape slides into the hole, you'll clear the crevasse. But be careful—there's a second crevasse waiting for you farther to the right. If you keep an eye on your footing, you won't have a problem here.

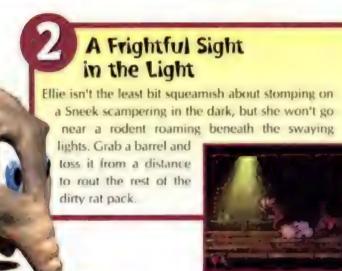

Roll Your Way Up!

Murky Mill is one of the best places in the game to collect bananas and extra lives. Since Kiddy is larger than Dixie, let him roll back and forth across the elevator to gather the entire string of bananas inside the shaft. If you memorize the pattern, you'll collect 51 bananas each time you roll to the top.

You can also catch the Warp Barrel if you jump up and left when the elevator stops.

BONUS AREAS

In the first Bonus Area, you'll bounce barrels into a rotating swarm of Bizzes. If you knock all four droning bees out of the way before time expires, you'll carn a Bonus Coin.

The second Bonus Area is trickier than the first. You need to time your jumps through twe twirling circles of Buzzes and reach the other side before you run out of time.

Roll back and forth on the rising elevator platform to pick up all the bananas.

There's an invisible Auto-fire Barrel here. Jump into it to find the Bonus

Barrel.

DK COIN!

Toss a barrel at the Sneek, then jump up at the light and grab the Green Balloon.

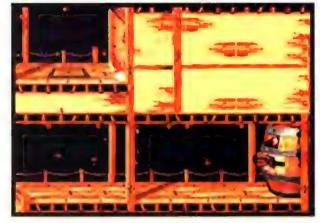

BELCHAS BARIN

Barrel o' Bugs

Belcha is a humongous barrel that haunts the deserted barn at the far end of Lake Orangatanga. Unlike other major baddies throughout the rest of the worlds in the game, Belcha won't hurt you if you accidentally bump into him. In fact, Belcha wants you to bump into him because he intends to bounce you right back outside the barn door. Belcha's one weak spot is his stomach-he's suffering from a bad case of indigestion. Stomp on the barrels as they roll out of Belcha's mouth. Inside each rolling barrel is a brown beetle. Stomp on the insect to turn it upside down, then pick it up and toss it into Belcha's mouth. Don't bounce twice on each bug-that knocks it off the screen. Time your jumps so you can pick up the insect right after you bounce on it the first time. Tossing bugs into Belcha's mouth is tricky. If you jump and throw the insect, the beetle will probably bounce off Belcha's forehead and miss. Try throwing the insect while standing directly in front of Belcha's mouth. Because Kiddy has a stronger throwing arm than Dixie, you'll have to adjust the range of your throw depending on which ape you've selected. If you keep rapidly feeding Belcha brown bugs, he'll start reeling backwards and will eventually fall off the platform.

Depending on how quick you are, you should be able to knock off Belcha with three or four insects. But if you're really fast, there's no excuse for not blasting Belcha backwards and out of

BARREL SHIELD BUST-UP

Dixie and Kiddy won't find safe refuge in the high treetops of Kremwood Forest. These tall trees are inhabited by a gang of unruly chimps who chuck acorns at anything that moves.

Take refuge from a fusillade of acorns behind the stationary barrels in the first half of the level. Scramble up the rope when the chimps stop to reload.

Just Say "Nuts!"

If Barrel Shield Bust-up is too nutty for you, try warping to the end of the stage. Look for the Auto-Fire Barrel at the bottom of the chamber below the Star Barrel. If you fall into the hole while holding Left on the Control Pad, you'll land in a Warp Barrel that will take you to the end of the stage. Just remember to come back later and collect the DK and Bonus Coins!

Take a Spin to the Second Bonus Barrel

Execute Dixie Kong's Helicopter Spin to land in Barrel Shield Bust-up's second Bonus Area. Use the TNT Barrel on the left wall of the left tree trunk and climb up to the DK Barrel. Select Dixie, then jump and Helicopter Spin through the hole on the right. Keep spinning right until you land in the Bonus Barrel outside the right tree trunk.

SOUEALS ON WHEELS

Even though the goal of this stage appears to be on the same level as the start, you'll have to climb up through the entire labyrinth to trigger the switch that will open the final door blocking the goal.

To open the steel shutters, you'll need to knock out the Sneeks that run on the dynamo wheels. Usually, you'll find a barrel that you can use as a projectile conveniently placed nearby. Taking out Sneeks is slightly more complicated when a Buzz runs interference and blocks your shot.

2 Warp Barrel

The Warp Barrel in this level is on the other side of the first shutter door, just above the doorway. Use the team throw to hurl your partner into the invisible barrel for a quick trip to the end of the level.

Green Means Go

When you take out a Sneeks, the nearby door meter will turn green. Once the meter at the top of the level is green, jump into the trapdoor. You'll fall back to the start, and the door to the goal will be open.

SPINGIN' SPIDERS

The namesake Springin' Spiders of this tree trunk test will help you reach the upper branches. Red spiders, or Nids, will spring when you step on them, while the yellow Nids leap about automatically.

The challenge in collecting this level's DK Coin lies in reaching Koin's perch. While riding the Nid in the right trunk, make Kiddy throw Dixie up to the shelf near Koin. Once on that ledge, it's a simple matter of tossing her through the hole to reach the Steel Barrel that you can use to knockout Koin.

Completing this Bonus Area requires precision flying with Squawks the parrot. Maneuver around the Buzz to collect 15 Bananas, then carefully make your way down to get the Bonus Coin.

It's best to use Dixie in the second Bonus Area, because she can Helicopter Spin down through the stars and collect them all on her first pass through the area.

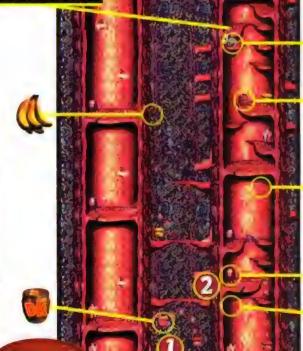

Jumping Spiders

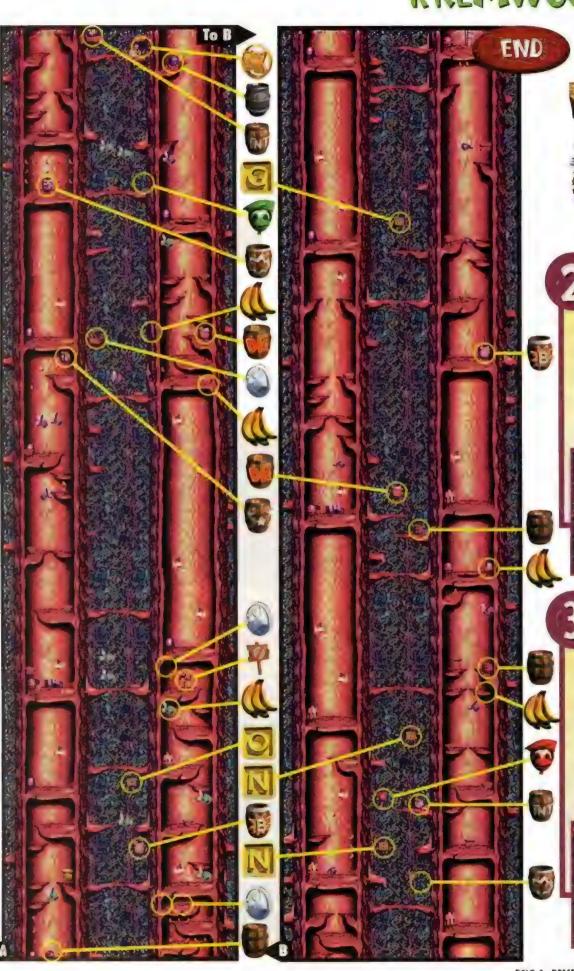

The yellow and red Nids in Springin' Spiders are your friends. Stand on them and they will spring into action, helping you reach platforms high above your head. You have to be careful when using them, though. Sometimes their jumping trajectory will take you perilously close to one of the many Buzzes that infest the trees. Also note that the Nids will break barrels you might be carrying if you don't jump precisely on their backs.

KREMWOOD FORE

Warp Barrel Available

You'll find the Warp Barrel above the first entrance to the right tree trunk. Use the team throw to get your partner into the barrel and you'll both warp to the end of the level.

For the Birds

Go down and transform into Squawks so you can take the shortcut through the right trunk. This path will give you 32 bananas as well as easy access to the first Bonus Barrel. Don't forget that you can use the Y Button to spit eggs as green Squawks.

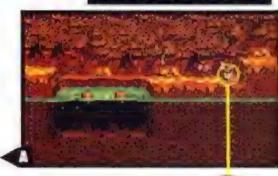

BOBBING BARREL BRAWL

Bobbing Barrel Brawl spotlights the abilities of one of the new DKC 3 goodies, Ellie the elephant. This versatile animal friend will be a major player throughout the rest of your adventures.

Use the DK Barrel to knock out the Booty Bird. It will drop a TNT Barrel on Buzz, revealing the letter K.

KNUCKLE UNDER, KOIN

You can press and hold the Y Button to turn Ellie's trunk into a powerful vacuum cleaner. This suction will pull items from a short distance away to your grasp. Use this ability to retrieve the Steel Barrel from behind the red Buzzes. Time your throw over Koin's head so the Buzz doesn't block your shot.

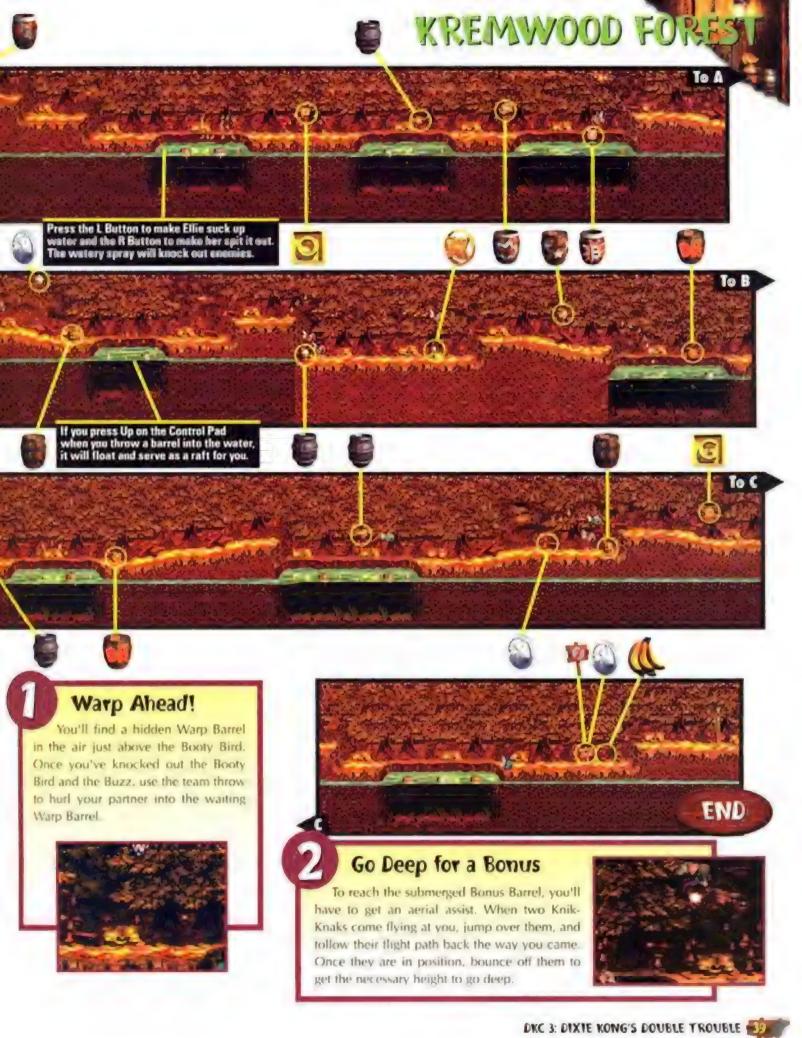

BONUS AREAS

Pick up the barrel and press Up as you throw it into the water. It will float where it lands. Carry another barrel with you when you jump to the floating barrel. Use this barrel to create another stepping stone.

The floating barrels are already in place in the second Bonus Area. The challenge is to accurately jump as you collect all the stars. Fall in, and Nibbla will end your run at the 10 stars.

BAZZA'S BLOCKADE

Bazza's Blockade isn't a tough level if you learn to watch the wild ways of the creatures swimming around you. The key to winning here is to go with the flow of the fish.

Schools of Bazza fish flit and float from the tubes around the reef. Wait until the fish swim into the coral before floating up to the top of the level.

Koin Krushing

Enguarde's Bonus Endeavor

You'll stay at the bottom of the food chain in this level until you find Enguarde. Enguarde has no problem swimming against the flow of the Bazza blockades. Use him to swim along the crowded coral corridor at the top of the level. If you swim far enough to the left, you'll find a Bonus Barrel.

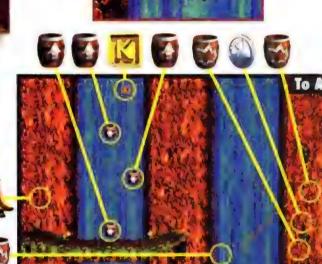

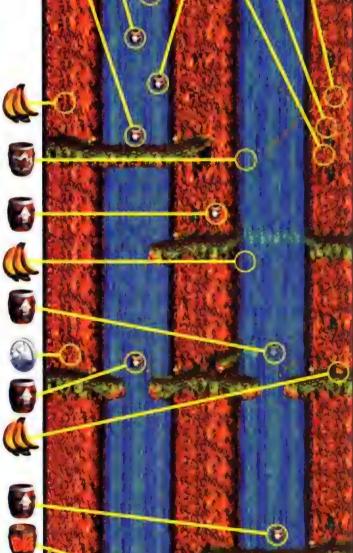

Squeezing between these two Buzzes is one of the most challenging jumps in the entire level. The lower Buzz hovers in one place while the upper Buzz flies up and down. Jump from the barrel while the upper Buzz is climbing.

BONUS AREAS

You have only 15 seconds to collect 20 stars in this bonus area. This challenge is diffi-cult because it's hard to see all the stars against the cliff background.

Collect 60 stars in 35 seconds! You'll lose sight of the Booster Barrels when you're shot into the air, but you'll land safely if you somersault down the star trails.

Smarter Than the Average Koin!

Ellie gives you one Steel Barrel to use on Koin, so if you miss, you'll have to try again from the Star Barrel or the beginning of the level: Toss the barrel at the wall on the left, then jump to the right on top of Koin. He'll be holding you up when the barrel crashes into him:

but as a parting present, the pachyderm will give you a Steel Barrel. You have just one chance to take out Koin-make it count!

Leaping blindly for the letter O will cause you woe. After you jump, hold Left or Right on the Control Pad so you'll land safely on the ledge below.

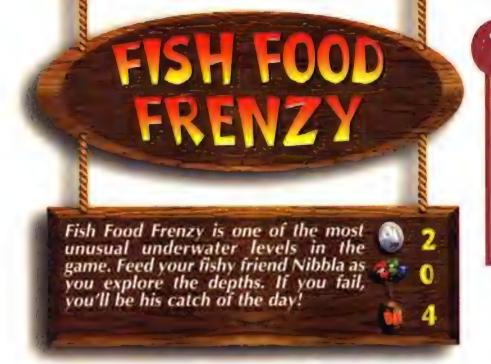

Feeding Frenzy!!!

Unlike other levels where Nibbla stalked you beneath the waves, this fearsome fish is your friend in Fish Food Frenzy—as long as he's being fed. Watch Nibbla's color—if he starts to turn red, he'll become so hungry that he'll eat a n y t h i n g , including you!

Don't Eat the Spiny Things!

Nibbla is a hungry fish, but he's picky about his food. If Nibbla gobbles up one too many Lurchins, he'll turn red and take a nasty bite out of you.

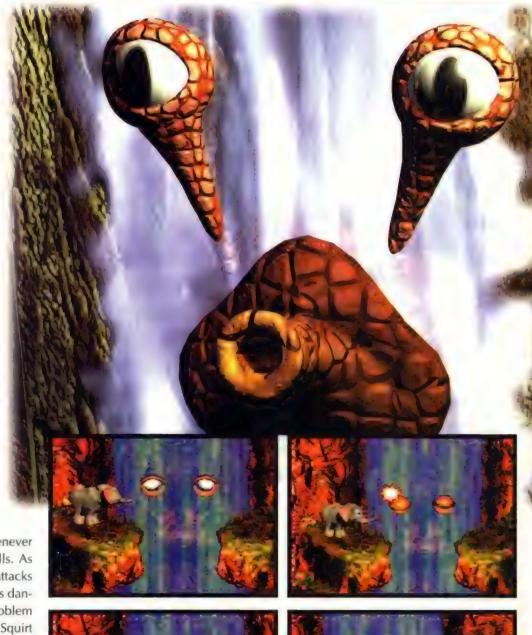

Stay High and Dry

Squirt's Showdown tests your jumping skills on the slippery rocks in front of a waterfall. One wrong move and you'll tumble into the mist below. Your first concern should always be your footing. Ellie's large feet slide easily on slippery surfaces, and this can be the most challenging aspect of the entire battle. Plan your leaps carefully and target a specific flat, broad portion of each boulder where you want Ellie to land. Squirt's powerful water attack rotates around the rocks. Stay ahead of the water spout by jumping across the rocks ahead of the geyser. Whenever Squirt isn't trying to wash you away with his water spout, load up Ellie's trunk with water. You can do this by holding Down on the Control Pad while pressing the A Button, or by pressing the L. Button while standing near the falls. Loading water can take a few seconds, so make sure you do it when there is no threat of being washed away. Spray water into Squirt's eyes whenever he peeks out from the waterfall. Your jumping skills and patience play a larger role in this battle than fast reflexes or accurate shooting. Take your time and jump and spray water whenever you're not in danger of falling off the falls. As you progress through the fight, Squirt's attacks will last longer, but if you stay ahead of his dangerous wall of water, you'll have no problem remaining high and dry. Once you defeat Squirt you'll find a ski. If you already have two skis, go back to Funky's Rentals and give the skis to him. He'll make you a speedy watercraft that can blast you up over some of the shorter waterfalls in the Northern Kremisphere. Now you can explore some of the toughest and most exciting terrain in the game.

Navigating this Knik-Knak strewn course is difficult, even with a map, but there are four DK Barrels to help keep you going. Don't follow your instincts; follow the bananas!

Be sure to pick up a partner before you hop on the rail car. This stage will be particularly draining on your supply of extra lives!

Use the banana traits as a guide for jump-ing over pipes. You can jump off the top of a pipe or slide down the other side.

Depending on the position of a pipe or an enemy, you can use it to jump to the upper track. Either route is okay at this point, but watch for Buzzes.

Once you hop into the rail car, you'll barrel along automatically from left to right. Press Down and jump to drop off the elevated track. Hitting enemies and pipes head-on will cause you to lose a partner, but you can often jump up and bounce off these obstacles to latch on to the upper track. You can press Left on the Control Pad to slow down slightly, but the default speed is best.

High Jump

Bonus Barrel in this stage is marked by a lone banana along the upper two Buzzes to reach it. Make sure that you're on the lower part of the pipe to see it you're on the upper track, and you wait until you see the green have before you drop down, you might throw off your timing for the jump.

Quick Response

Up until now, you've probably learned to avoid the pits along the bottom of the pipe. (You can jump out of them safely, but the timing is tricky.) In this case, you should bounce off the Knik-Knak to avoid the first pit, then immediately drop down into the second one. A single banana in the middle of the pit marks the location of a Bonus Barrel.

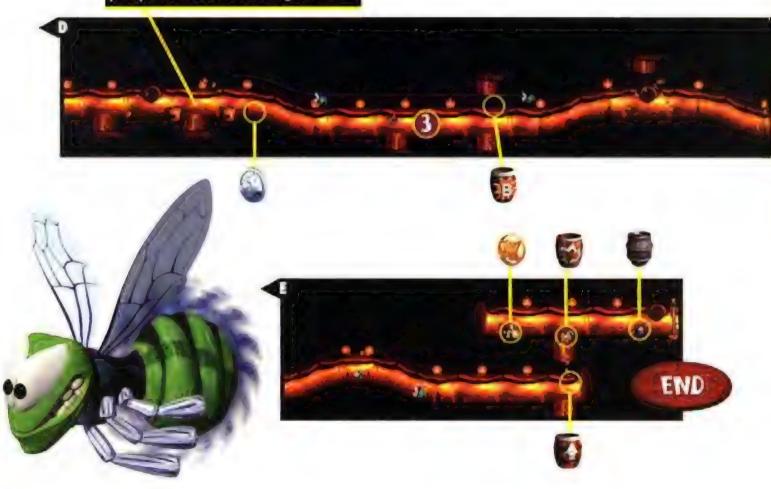

These bananas don't warn you about the next pit. If you drop down, immediately jump up to avoid wiping out.

Jump from one pipe to the next, but don't take the upper track. Stay on the lower part of the pipe to pick up the Bear Coin and avoid the green Buzz.

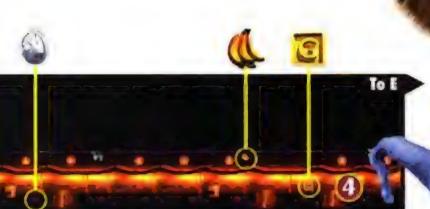

MEKANOS

No Big Deal

Compared to the rest of this grueling stage, getting the DK Coin payoff will be child's play. When you reach the end of the course, hop up into the Auto-fire Barrel to reach the upper pipe. Grab the Steel Barrel on the right and jump over the gap to the left. Stand on top of Koin's shield and throw the barrel to the left.

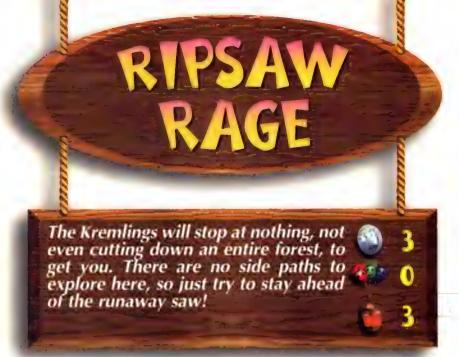

High or Low Road?

You can take either the upper or lower path to pick up the letter G, but either way, timing is crucial. You can boost yourself to the upper track and then drop down after the first pit, or you can jump over the pipe and then jump again immediately to clear the first pit. Jump just as you're collecting the letter G to avoid the second pit.

Sawdust Memories

There's a huge saw that will follow you as you make your way upward, and if you dillydally too long in one spot, the Kremlings will be having chopped ape burgers for lunch! Keep moving and jump as soon as the next branch or step appears. You can jump right through the shorter branches and platforms.

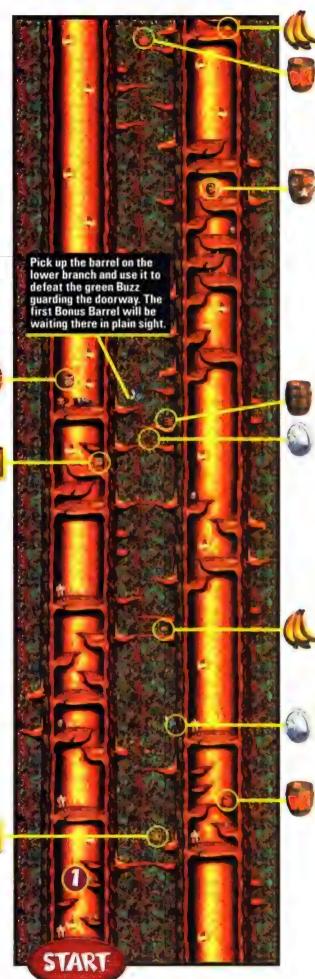

This Bonus Area is just like the main stage, though it scrolls a bit faster. Just follow the trail of hamanas upward to find the Bonus Coin.

You'll become invincible automatically when you enter this Bonus Area. Ride the saw blade as it rises and collect 15 green bananas before you reach the top of the tree.

Duck below the platform where the letter G is to find an invisible Auto-fire Barrel. You'll fly up to another Auto-fire Barrel and then to an Invincibility Barrel. Ride the saw blade upward, collecting bananas as you go. Jump to the upper left platform before your invincibility wears off.

If you don't hurry, the saw will cut you down before you can reach this Steel Barrel. Use it to blow past the green Buzz and reach the second Bonus Barrel.

END

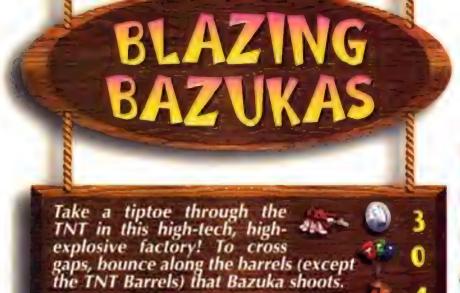

If you manage to collect the Invincibility Barrel, jump up and to the left to find the Steel Barrel, then go up and to the right to find Koin. If you take the right-hand path instead, follow the course until you see the flagpole at the end of the stage. Jump up and to the left to find Koin. With the Steel Barrel in hand, stand on the far right side of the branch just above Koin's head, (If you stand too far to the left, the barrel will bounce off Koin's shield.) Toss the barrel to the left to catch him unawares. Collect the DK Coin and proceed to the end of the stage.

Megaton Menace

Carry the TNT Barrel to the left and give Bazuka a taste of his own medicine. Even if you miss or your barrel gets blown up, you can still hop into the Squitter Barrel behind him. Use platform webs to backtrack to the first Bonus Barrel.

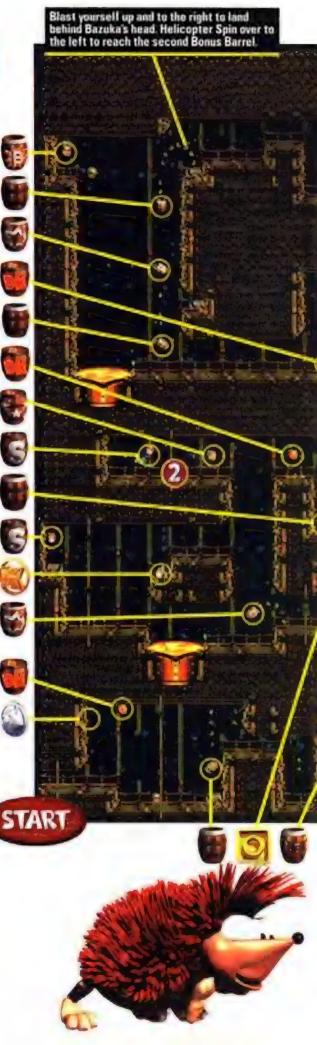

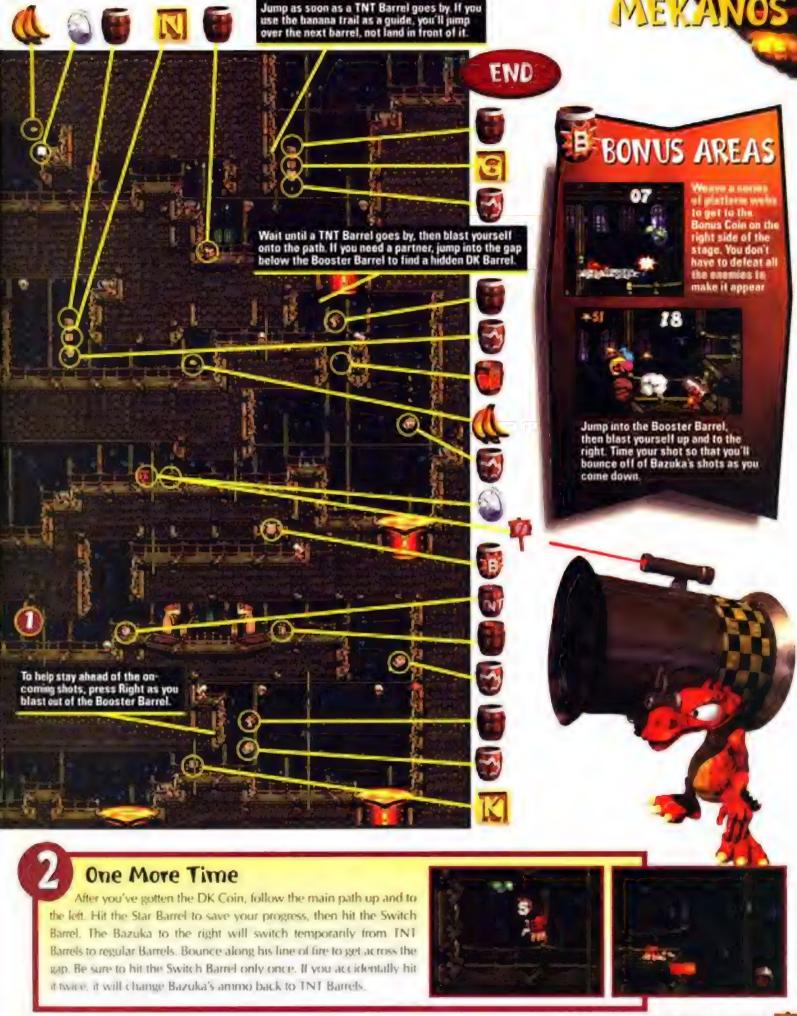

SWITCHEROO

Getting the DK Coin in this stage is much easier if you've changed into Squitter. From where Koin is standing, use platform webs or, if you're using Dixie, the Helicopter Spin to go left across the gap. Bazuka is there, shooting at Koin, but his regular Barrels have no effect. While avoiding Bazuka's shots (by standing on his head), jump up and hit the Switch Barrel to change his ammo temporarily to Steel Barrels. Go back to the platform on the right and stand so Koin is facing away from the incoming fire. His own Kremling cohort will shoot him in the back with a Steel Barrel!

Claw Cargo

Press the Y button to pick up barrels, then use them to clear any nasty bugs to the side or below. To hit oncoming enemies, flap towards the target, then tap the Control Pad in the opposite direction. The barrel will be facing your enemy when you collide.

SLOW MOTION

If you make it all the way to Koin as Squawks, flap over to the left past the No Squawks sign. As you change back to ape form, you'll get a Steel Barrel as a bonus. Stand on Koin's head and lob the barrel over to the right to bounce off the wall. If you miss, or if you've already lost Squawks, follow the tunnel to the left and up to the next passage. You'll find a regenerating Steel Barrel just to the right.

TNT Junction

At this junction, fly up and grab the TNT Barrel in the alcove above. Drop back down to the main tunnel and use the barrel to destroy the tast-flying Buzz that's blocking the shatt leading downward. Follow the tunnel to the second Bonus Barrel. Once you exit the Bonus Area, you'll reappear farther along in the stage than you might expect. You'll pop in at the bottom of the next shatt, to the left of the one with the Bonus Barrel.

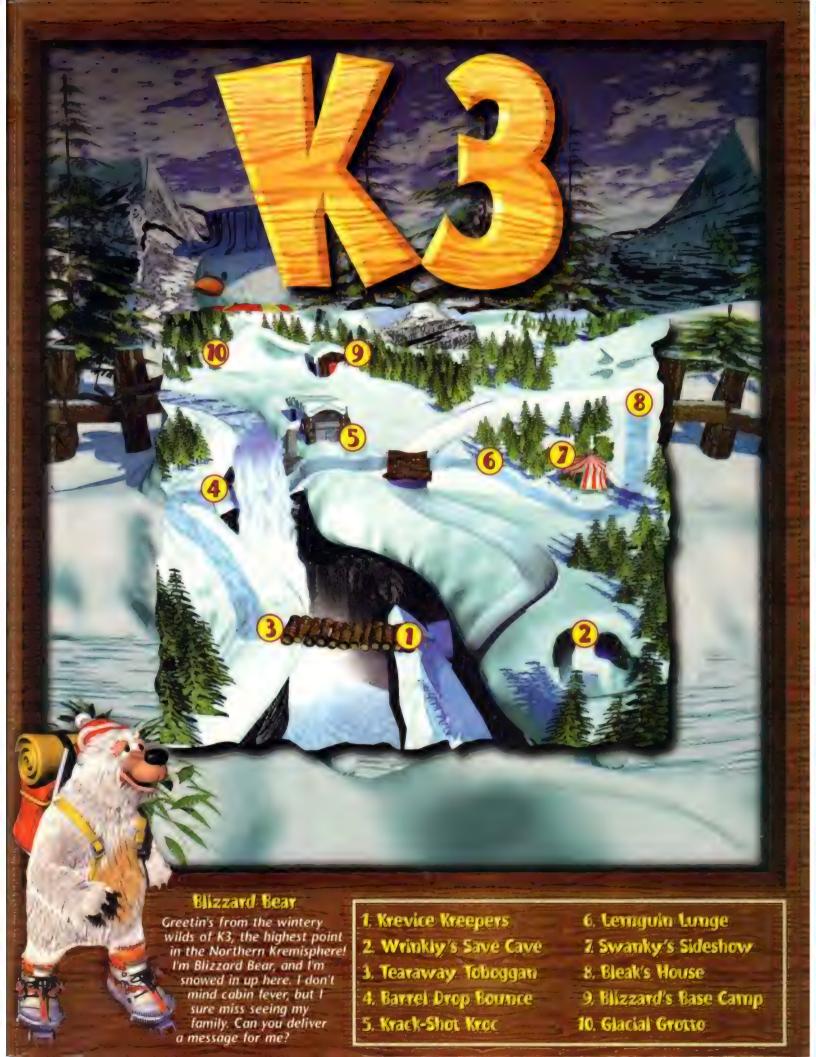

The first Bonus Barrel is out of sight at the top of this shaft. Instead of making a shaflew jump to get over the green Buzzes, use a jumping Team Toss to reach the barrel.

KREVICE KREEPERS

The Klasps in Krevice Kreepers are more intelligent than the boring barrels you hung out with in Cotton-Top Cove. These explosive Kremlings chase their prey across the high wires.

BONUS AREAS

Collect 30 stars in 25 seconds! You can make numerous leaping passes above the Klasp before time runs out. Take your time. plan your moves, and you'll remain intact.

You have 20 seconds to work your way past two speedy Klasps and climb up to the Bonus Coin. Try laking out the Klasps several times before you leap up to their line.

KOIN'S KREVICE

Have Kiddy throw the Steel Barrel up to the right and run back to the left as the barrel rolls along the overhead passage. It's hard to get ahead of the barrel, but if you use Kiddy's roll, you will come out ahead:

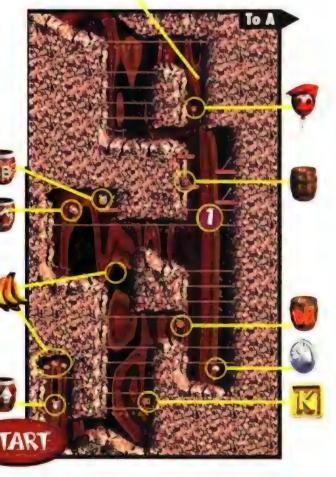

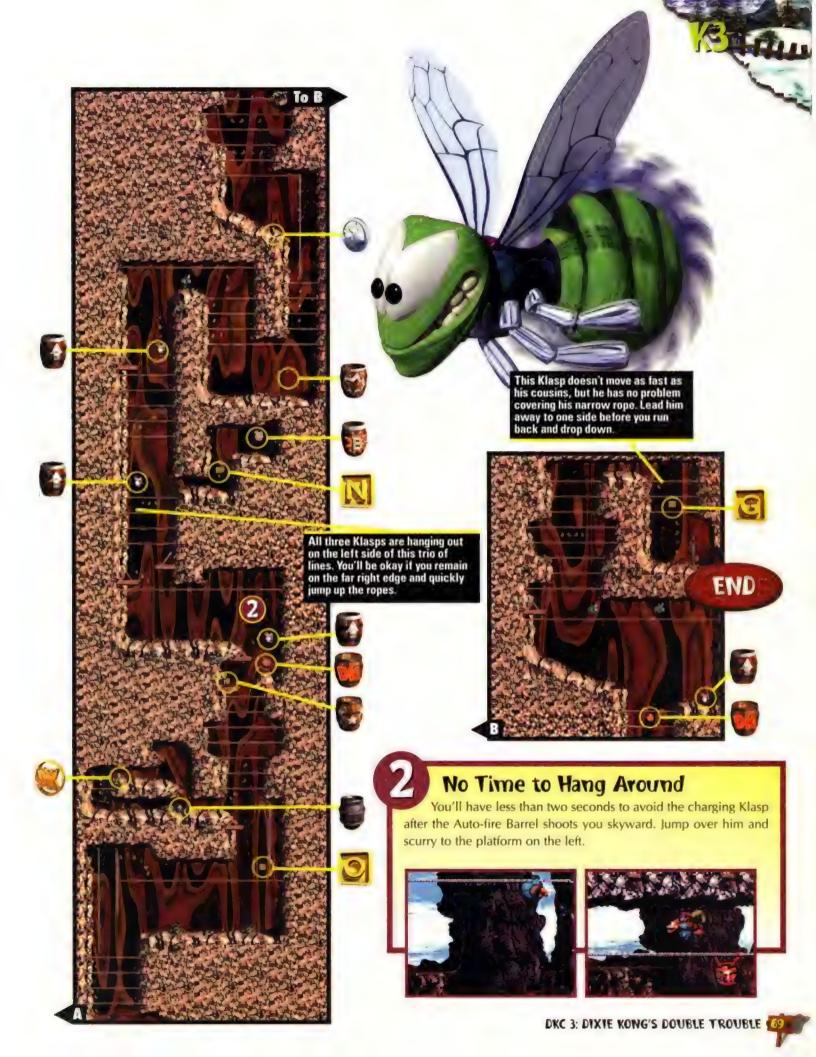

You'll have to fake this Klasp out before you can reach the first Bonus Barrel. Wait on the far right side of the upper rope until the Klasp is directly below you. Hurry left and jump down on to his rope. If you're fast enough, you'll reach the Bonus Barrel before Klasp can catch up.

Snag the Red Balloon with your team toss technique. You'll have only a couple of seconds to throw Dixie before the balloon drifts beyond your hairy fingers.

TEARAWAY

If you blast out of this barrel while it's pointing down to the right, just barely above the red Buzz, you'll land in the level's first Bonus Barrel.

Tearaway Toboggan is the fastest and wildest ride in K3. Since you're going to cover miles of icy terrain in a few seconds, we've allowed four pages to examine all the details.

BONUS AREA

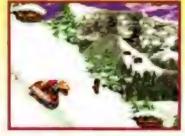

Pound three Knik-Knaks in 15 seconds and pocket a Bonus Coin. This might seem like an easy challenge, but you'll have to use your team throw technique to nail the Knik-Knaks. Throw Kiddy or Dixie at the middle Knik-Knak as the other two fly to the edge of the screen, then finish off the rest

The weather takes a turn for the worse when you reach this portion of the course. Look between the falling snowllakes to catch all the goodies.

Feeling the Need for Speed?

Like the Demolition Drain-pipe on Mekanos, Tearaway Toboggan is a wild sled ride through the entire level. To survive, you'll need either to avoid the enemies and obstacles in your path or to deliberately run them down. While you won't be able to control the speed of your sled, you can jump on or over obstructions by pressing the B Button.

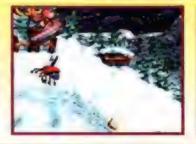

To book or not to book—that is the question. If you book the Knik-Knak you'll pick up a Banana Bunch, but if you go under him you'll find a Red Balloon.

Don't Knock the Knak!

Knocking off this flying Knik-Knak will bounce your toboggan into a crevasse. Hop over the buzzing bug to continue your wild ride across the snowy landscape. If you do hit the Knik-Knak, you can try to avoid a pit stop by pressing the B Button at the exact moment your sled lands.

Unlike the other cabins where you can choose between leaping up onto the roof or cruising by the front door, this cabin has only a roof route. Be sure to jump.

Take the low road beneath the cabin roof to pick up six bananas, or leap up onto the roof and pick up a hidden Bear Coin to the left of the green Buzz.

An Oscillating Odyssey

You'll have to go over and under a bevy of baddies before your toboggan ride terminates. If you can't decide between the high or low road, just follow the banana trails.

Get ready to bounce across six Skiddas after you find the

BARREL DROP BOUNCE

If you can reach the flag at the end of Barrel Drop Bounce, you can complete all 103% of the game. The four-barrel waterfall jump is one of the toughest series of leaps in DKC 3.

Stand to the right, leap up and throw the Steel Barrel to the right of Koin, then run left and jump up on top of his shield. If you don't jump as you throw, the barrel will roll into the gap between the ledges and tumble down the waterfall.

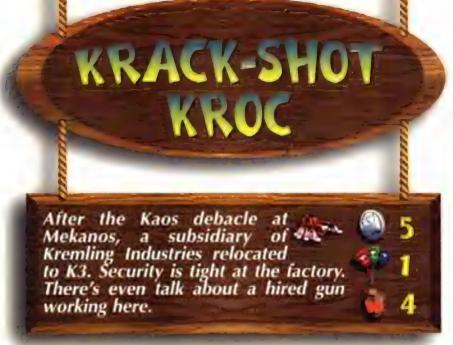

This is the toughest series of jumps in the level—and possibly in the entire game. Jump across the four barrels and leap up into the Auto-fire Barrels.

Parry Has a Gift for You!

If you can deliver Parry to the No Parry sign, he'll turn into a Green Balloon. This isn't an arduous feat if you remember to watch out for Parry as you leap over the green Buzzes buzzing around the last part of the level.

A rotating red Buzz is the only obstacle between you and the second Bonus Barrel. Time your jumps between the web platforms to avoid being stung.

You're in the Kroc's Krosshairs!

It's open season on spiders once you skitter past the warning sign in this level. Kroc's gun is locked on a target whenever the crosshairs turn red. If you find yourself in the Kroc's locked sights, you'll have less than a second to avoid the incoming fireball.

Squitter will transform into a Steel Barrel when you finally reach the No Squitter sign near the end of the level. Stand on the right side of Koin, then leap up and toss the Barrel over the Kremling so it bounces against the left wall.

Use your team throw technique to leap and toss Dixie up and over the red Buzz. If your aim is true, you'll end up inside the level's first Bonus Barrel.

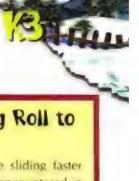

NINTENDO PLAYER'S GUIDE

Instead of bouncing across the Lenguins, try running with the pack along this section of ice. It's easier than trying to anticipate when to jump or dodge:

Area you have 20 seconds to spring off the backs of the stiding Lenguins as you collect 30 stars. You'll find the coin on the right side.

You can't outrun the Lemguins beneath the cabin. Wait until there is a gap in the traffic and jump off the roof. Then run left and claim your Bear Coin.

It's a Long Roll to the Top!

The Lemguins here are sliding faster than the others you've encountered in the level. Don't waste your time trying to hop between the Lemguins, just aim for their backs and bounce your way to the top of the hill. If you clear this last onslaught, you'll find the flagpole on the summit.

BUZZER BARRAGE

Buzz usually doesn't pose a problem for your avian friend, Squawks. However, in this level you will be transformed into the purple version of Squawks, who must use barrels to beat the baddies!

Purple Parrot Power

You'll have to use the purple Squawks's ability to pick up barrels to clear a path through the many Buzzes in this level. Remember that if you drop a barrel it will roll, clearing out enemies in its path. For example, you can roll the Steel Barrel under the Buzzes to knock out the Booty Bird.

BONUS AREAS

Bash seven Buzzes with the reappearing barrel at the bottom of the cave to capture the Bonus Coin. Be quick about it and don't miss any of the enemies up in the corners of the cavern.

In the second Bonus Area you'll have to bounce off of Kopter's helmeted head to collect all the stars. Kiddy is the best character to use for this Bonus Area because his large body collects more stars with each pass.

FLIP KOIN

Fly between the two Kopters to reach the Steel Barrel's resting place. Use it to knock out the Buzzes, then go get it again. Carry it down and drop it when you're above and slightly to the left of Koin to win his golden prize.

Bowling With Barrels

Sometimes you'll need to carry barrels for a while before you reach the spot where you need them. Watch for the Kopters because they will break your barrel it they touch it.

The floodwater runoff of Razor Ridge has collected in a dark cesspool at the base of the cliffs. Luckily, your goodie buddy, Enguarde, is here to help!

Pools of Light and Shadow

The bioluminescent bodies of the Gleamin' Breams will light your way through parts of this level, but you'll have to prod them with Enguarde's swordfish bill to get them to shine brightly.

Swim down from the starting point to find the Enguarde Barrel. As Enguarde, you can poke the Gleamin' Breams to light up the level.

BONUS AREAS

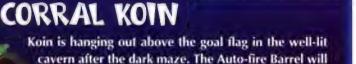

You'll have to collect a whopping 90 stars to make the Bonus Coin appear. There are no enemies here, so it's not very difficult. Using Enguarde's dash move (press and hold the A Button for a few seconds) will help you collect the stars quickly.

Navigating through a darkened maze is the challenge in the second Bonus Area. Il you follow the trail of stars. you'll easily collect the Bonus Coin at the end.

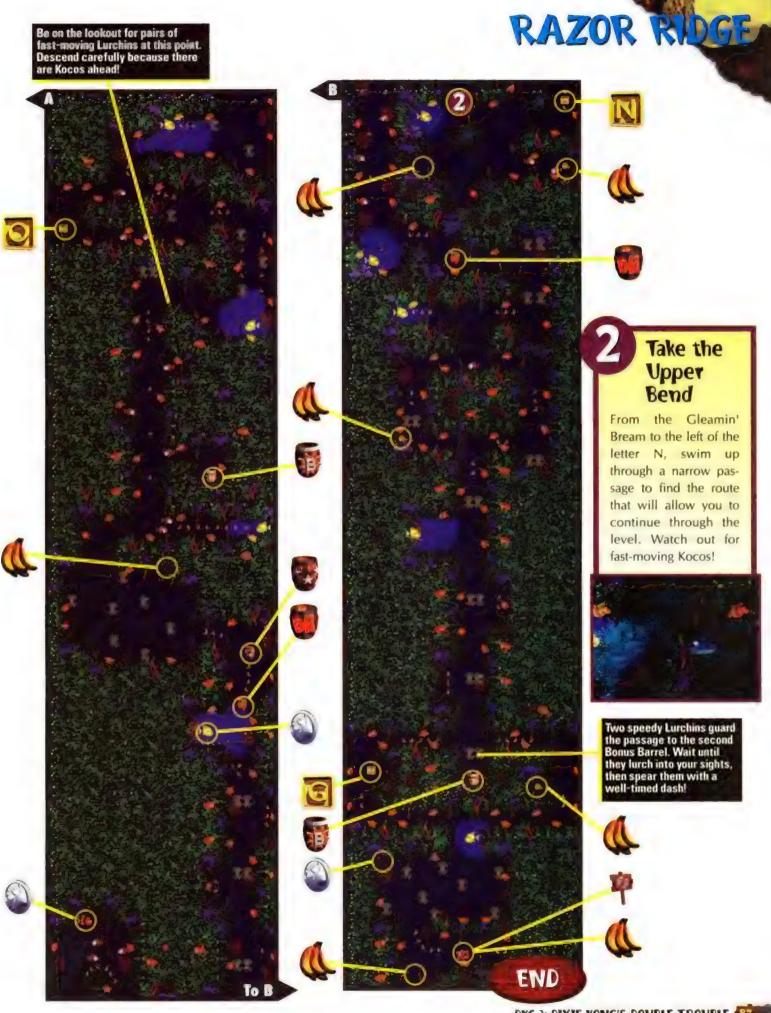

launch you up to the Steel Barrel. Stand on top of Koin and throw the barrel against the wall to knock him out.

You'll need Squawks to get anywhere in this level. Release him from the crate and fly up to the corridor.

Ellie is essential for reaching the first Bonos Barrel, so be careful not to lose her to the Kuchucka's and Kopters ahead

To reach the first Bonus Barrel, you'll need Ellie's help. Swim into position under the letter N. Make Ellie jump out of the water by pressing the B Button, then press the Y Button while in midair to leap off her back and into the Bonus Barrel.

The Webbed Wonder

Reaching the second Bonus Barrel requires pinpoint placement of web platforms. The A and R Buttons create platforms. Press them again to make the platform stick. Start just to the right of the explosions and place platforms as you jump to reach the Bonus

Barrel above. Don't stray to the left, into the trajectory of Kuchuka's bombs!

You'll have to use the same technique you used in entering this Bonus Area, jumping off Ellie's back in midair, to collect all 20 stars.

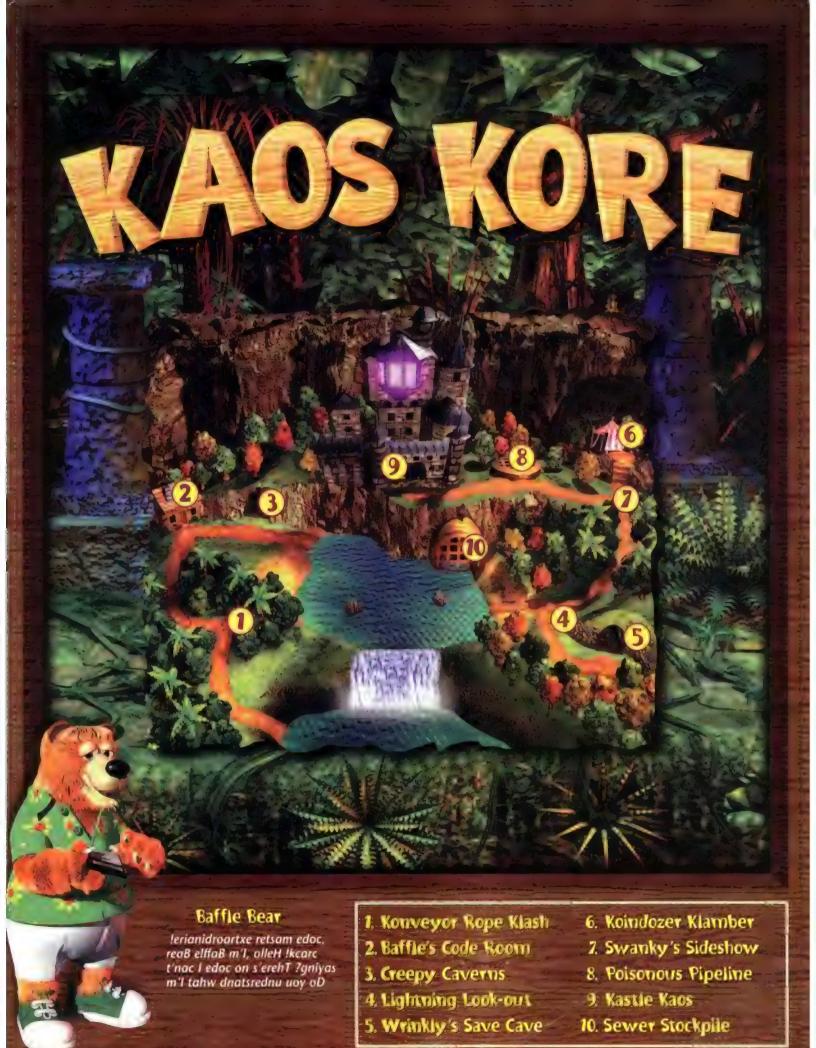

Squitter is safe from Kuchucka's bombs in the left and right corners of the Bonus Area. Hold down the Y Button to run as you go for 15 bananas Koin is perched above the goal flag and it's easy to miss him unless you know he's there. Use Kiddy to throw Dixie up to get the Steel Barrel and use it to put the kibosh on Koin.

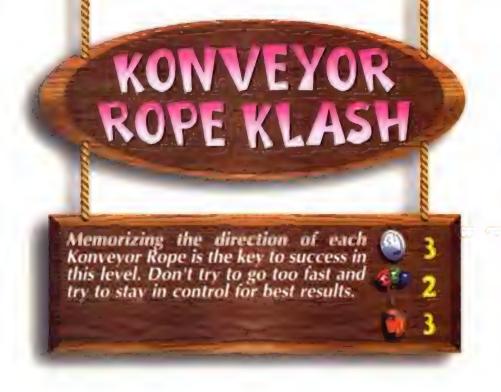

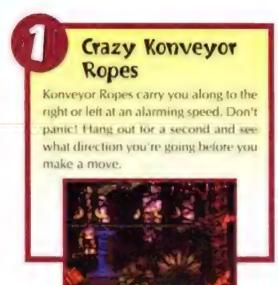

DKC 3: DIXTE KONG'S DOUBLE TROUBLE [

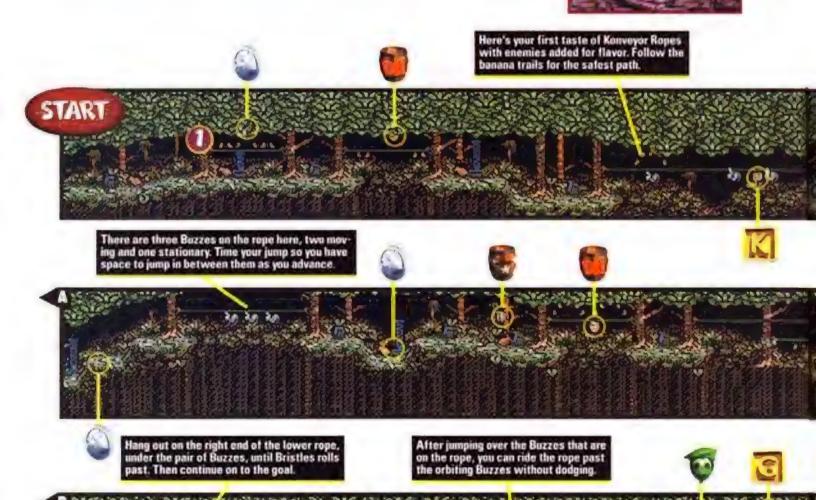

KAOS KORE

Quick Climb Attack! Move monkey, move! The fast Konveyor Ropes here will ride you right into the Buzzes if you don't jump quickly. Again, the banana trails will show you the way though the jungle.

The first Bonus Barrel is out in the open, but you'll need to drop off the Konveyor Rope and backtrack a little to find it.

Use a barrel to knock out the Booty Bird and reveal the letter N.

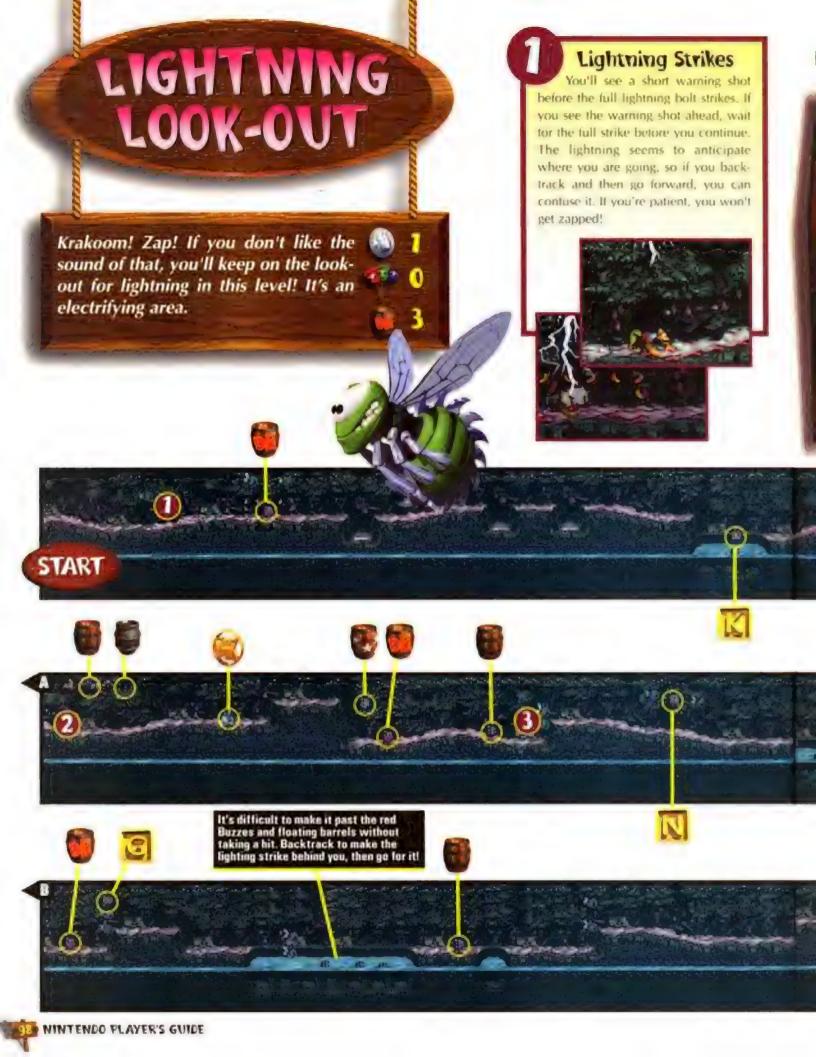

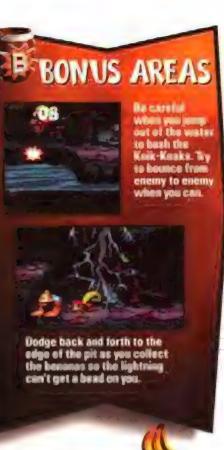

KONVEY OVER KOIN!

Throw the Steel Barrel against the right wall, then ride the Konveyor Rope over Koin as the barrel rolls into him.

Let the lightning take out the first Booty Bird, then use the barrel you get to beat the second Booty Bird. Lighting will only rarely hit the second bird because he has a Buzz flying over him. You'll get the Steel Barrel from the second Booty Bird.

KAOS KORE

KRAKOOM! KOIN!

Once you have the Steel Barrel from the Booty Bird, it's easy to shock Koin into giving up his DK Coin. Just don't forget about dodging the lightning!

Go just past the letter 0 and backtrack when you go for the first Bonus Barrel to keep the lightning off your back.

Wait out the storm underneath the red Buzzes. They won't fly law enough to hit you, and they will shield you from the lightning.

To B

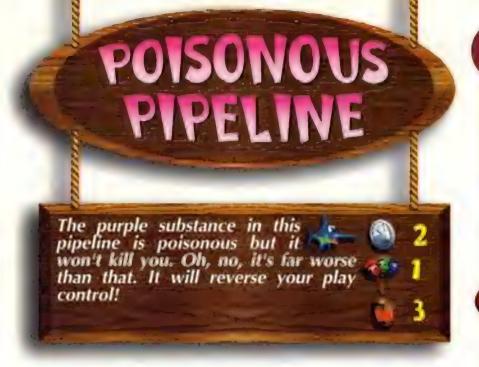

You'll soon discover that the lightning can be your friend. It will take out all enemies except for the red Buzzes. An enemy overhead will shield you from the strike, or you can carry a barrel over your head for protection. Whatever you do, stay out of the water during a lightning strike!

Kongfused Control

Whenever the Kongs are in the water, the Left and Right directions on the Control Pad will be reversed. This will, of course, make it more difficult to maneuver between the many aquatic obstacles in this level.

2 Enguarde to the Rescue

Do not miss the first Bonus Barrel, even if you've already got the Bonus Coin. After exiting the Bonus Area, you will continue play as Enguarde, which will be extremely helpful even with the controls mixed up.

KAOS KORE

KRACK KOIN!

It's easier to beat Koin with Kiddy.
Grab the Steel Barrel and stand on top of Koin's shield. If you throw the barrel against the wall, you'll crack his defenses.

PHASE 1: KAOS

KAOS, the giant robot from Mekanos, is back, but he hasn't recovered from the beating you gave him. To send him back to the scrap heap, grab the barrel on the right side of the room and hit him in the head with it. You'll have to wait for his booster rocket to stop firing before you dash underneath him. It's easier to hit him in the head if you hold Up on the Control Pad as you toss the barrel.

PHASE 2: KAOS MK. II

After the first hit, KAOS will sprout a new head. This version of the robot will throw grenades at you, so take it out quickly. Hit it in the head again and the KAOS robot will be hauled away as junk, this time for good. Your battle is only beginning, as out from behind the curtain steps the true mastermind of all the trouble in the Northern Kremisphere: Baron K. Roolenstein!

PHASE 3: BARON K. ROOLENSTEIN

The Baron doesn't really attack, he merely swoops back and forth across the room. You must hit him in the back with barrels while avoiding him. Pull the handles hanging from the ceiling to get barrels. Hang out on the floor, ducking the Baron, until you are open to pull the handle and make your attack. After a hit, dodge back and forth to avoid him as he spins out of control.

PHASE 4: DYNAMO ACTIVE!

In Phase 4, the Baron will activate his electrical dynamos, sending arcs of electricity shooting across the floor of his lab. The only way to get from one end of the lab to the other is to use the handles hanging from the ceiling. You'll find the barrel-dispensing handle on the left side and a safe platform on the right side. Dixie's Helicopter Spin makes it easy to jump over the Baron when you're on the handles.

PHASE 5: MOVING PLATFORM

The Baron will provide you with a moving platform that moves from one side of the lab to the other in phase 5. The barrel-dispensing handle is now on the right and the safe platform is on the left. You can safely ride the platform underneath the floating Baron if you duck.

PHASE 6: INTERMITTENT DYNAMO

In the final phase of fighting K. Roolenstein, the electical blast will arc on and off. It will stop just long enough to allow you to run the length of the room. There will be safe platforms on both sides of the room. Be sure to pull the handle right after the electricity stops so you have time to jump down from the platform and grab the barrel. If you drop it in the electricity, or on top of K. Roolenstein, it will break to no effect. Hit the Baron three more times and it will be all over!

HAT 7021

C'mon! Of course there's a Lost World in DKC 3! If you weren't able to figure out its location from the hints dropped by Blunder Bear, here's an explanation of how to open the passage to Krematoa, the Lost World of the Kremlings. You probably noticed four rocks in the water to the east of Mekanos. Circle those rocks several times in your current Funky vehicle. This will open access to Krematoa some of the most challenging action in the game!

MORE BANG FOR YOUR BUCK

You will meet Boomer Bear near the entrance to Krematoa. Boomer's specialty is blasting stuff, which is why his brothers hid him away in the Lost World. With all his explosive toys, he was simply too dangerous for the surface world! In order to enter the different levels of Krematoa, you'll need to hire Boomer to blast away the rocky roadblocks. As a coin collector, Boomer won't accept the common Bear Coins, though. He takes only the elusive Bonus Coins as payment for his services, and you'll need the entire haul from all the levels in order to open every location in the Lost World.

Parry the parallel bird must collect 15 bananas before time runs out. If you make a mistake, you'll have to complete the entire level to try again.

KOIN KRUNCHING

Koin is your last stop before hauling up the flag over Stampede Sprint. Jump up and toss the Steel Barrel over Koin's head so it rebounds off the wall and hits him in the back.

CRISS KROSS CLIFFS

A trigger-happy Bazuka sits at the bottom of Criss Kross Cliffs. If you time your leaps just right, you can bounce your way up the cliff on Bazuka's Steel Barrels.

Dixie and Kiddy need to bounce on the Steel Barrels to make it to the summit of Criss Kross Cliffs. Use the Switch Barrels to blast away red Buzzes.

KOIN SWITCHBACK

Jump and throw the Steel Barrel over Koin's noggin so it rebounds and hits him in the back. Just be sure to reset the overhead Switch Barrel before you journey onward.

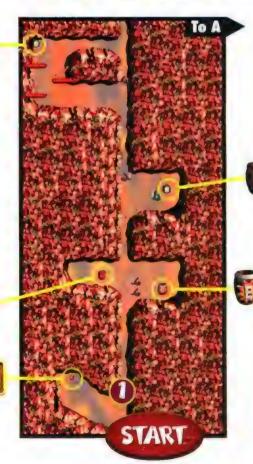

B BONUS AREAS

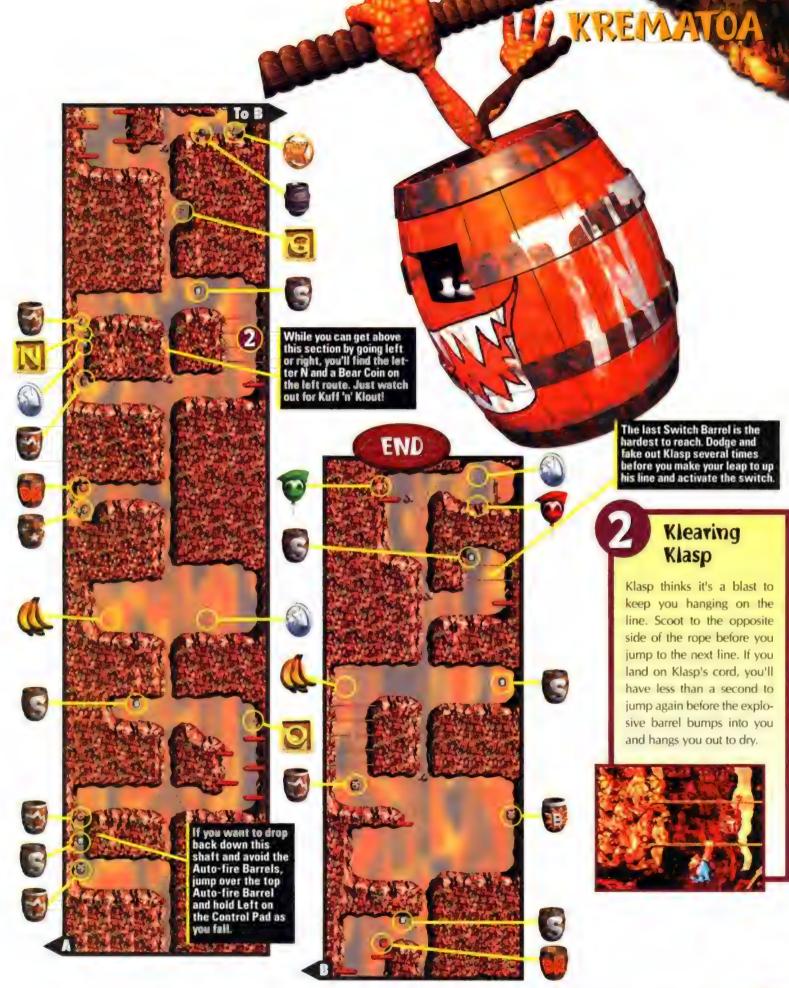

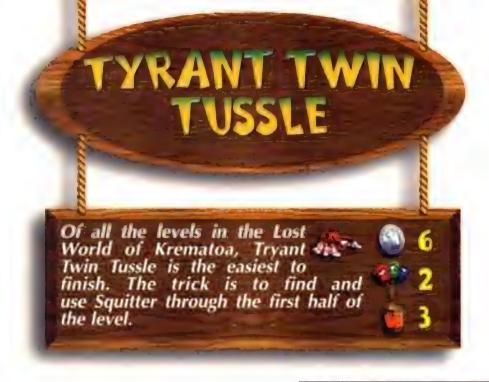

Leaping over TNT Barrels requires split-second timing. Once you get the hang of Bazuka's rhythm, you can skip between the ledges without being blown away.

You'll have to jump and throw Dixie up into the air to reach this Bonus Barrel. Inside you'll knock out a swarm of Knik-Knaks to claim your Bonus Coin.

The Kuff 'n' Klout Bout

The Kremling Twins, Kuff 'n', Klout, make their home in Tyrant Twin Tussle. Unless you have access to a lifetime supply of TNT Barrels, it's a good idea to avoid this daunting duo. If Kuff 'n' Klout run at you, jump over them. If they're hopping in your direction. don't get undertoot.

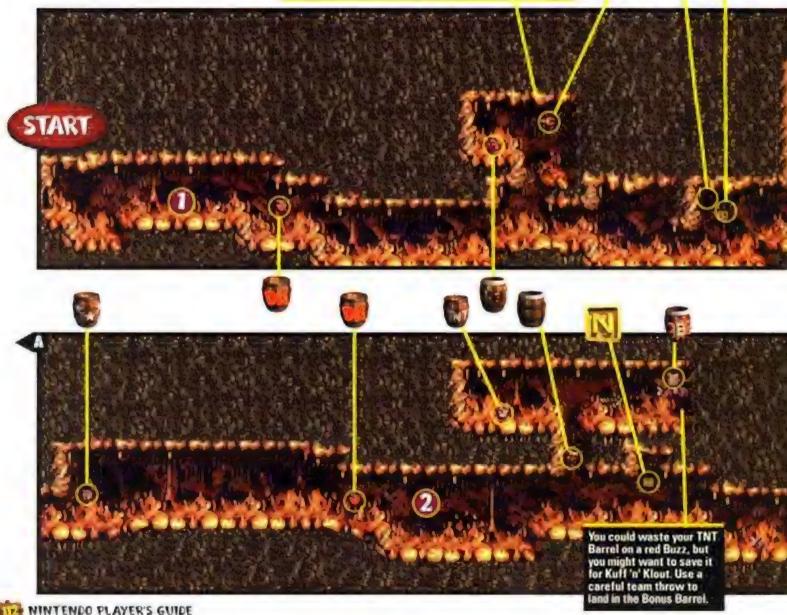

The Booty Bird flapping near the ceiling has a Bear Coin. Use Squitter's web to slap the bird out of your way. You can also use the webs on Kuff 'n' Klout.

SQUITTER'S NO QUITTER!

A Bazuka Kremling is shooting Steel Barrels across the ceiling. Use Squitter and create a series of web platforms to the left of Koin. Bazuka's Steel Barrels will roll across the platforms and hit Koin: Try making the webs while standing on Koin's shield.

KREMATO

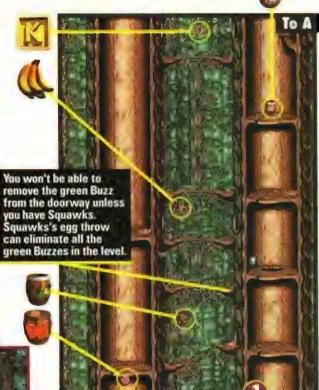

Follow the Banana Trail!

It's tough to get around Kuff 'n' Klout here, but if you jump along the banana trail when the Kremlings are on the ground, you'll have the best chance at getting over your problem.

Swoopy can help and hinder your progress through the level. Some Swoopy birds will dive down and embed their beaks in the tree trunks. Use these birds as stairs as you climb into the forest canopy.

A TIGHT SPOT

You'll be rolling the Steel Barrel in cramped quarters to win this DK Coin. Stand on top of Koin's shield and throw the barrel at the left wall. If you stand still, the barrel will bounce off the wall and roll into Koin while he's looking up at you.

No Squawks allowest Bounce of the becks of the Swoopy birds and climp to the Boun-Competers time expires

The lone Swoopy is flying around the Bonus Area in a tigure eight-pattern. Avoid him as you grab 15 benanas

Use Dixie and Kiddy's team throw technique to catch all 20 stars before 15 seconds run off the clock.

ROCKET

Long ago a rocket fell off Baron K. Roolenstein's junk pile and bounced down a canyon. The dangerous device is the way to clear Krematoa's deepest chasm.

HOUSTON, WE HAVE A PROBLEM.

Koin can be a big problem if you don't know where to stand and throw your barrel. Instead of standing on the rocks and throwing the barrel, walk across the wood platform and stand directly undermeath him. If you leap up and throw the barrel at the top of your jump, the barrel will are over Koin and hit him in the back.

Energy Crisis

You'll burn up most of your fuel slowing your descent into the canyon in the first half of the stage. You'll have to collect all of the Fuel Drums as you drop or your flight will be a bust. You'll also burn less fuel if you limit the burn time on your retro rockets.

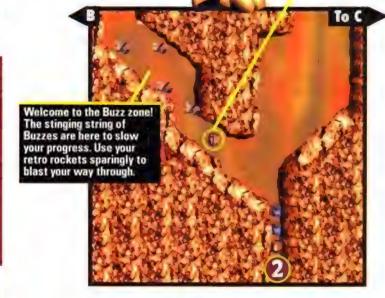

Ignition

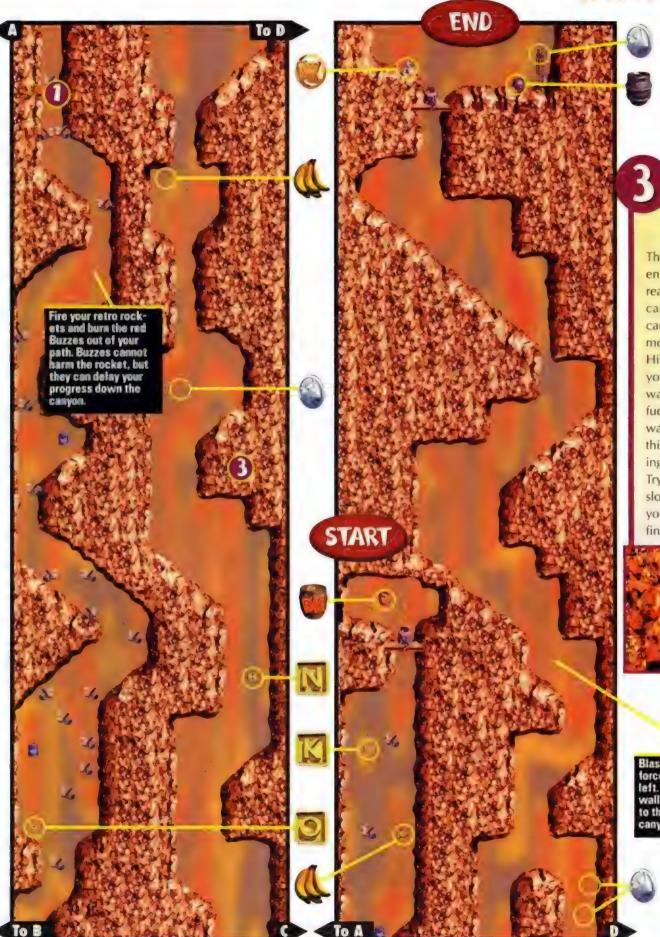

After you hit the Star Barrel, your rocket will drift down into a hole containing two Fuel Barrels and an Ignition Barrel. The Ignition Barrel ignites the main engine. Veer right and follow the banana trail up the canyon.

KREMATOA

Cleared for Takeoff!

There's more than enough fuel to reach the top of the canyon, but you can't hit the wall more than twice. Hitting a wall slows your progress and wastes precious fuel. Bouncing off a wall can be a good thing if you're moving too fast to steer. Try bouncing to slow your ship as you enter the level's final turns.

Blast your steering jets to force your rocket to the left. Stay close to the wall so you can ease back to the right and clear the canyon's narrowest gap.

until the Baron abdicates his throne.

K. Roolenstein in the back. Keep doing this

He will demand a stiff price, but Bear Coins are easy come, easy go. Baffle will give you a clue on how to open Sewer Stockpile, the cave with the hidden banana bird in Kaos Kore.
